Words in My Hands

A Teacher, A Deaf-Blind Man, An Unforgettable Journey

By

Diane L. Chambers

Bert Riedel, an eighty-six year old deaf-blind pianist, cut off from world since age forty-five, discovers a new life through hand-over-hand-sign. This heartwarming narrative about the life-changing power of sign language communication is told by Diane L. Chambers, Bert's sign language teacher. Diane finds her world transformed as well by her relationship with her unique deaf-blind student. "Words in My Hands" is the true story of their unforgettable journey.

Beautifully and eloquently written, Chambers' story takes the reader through the intricacies and complexities of not only deafness and blindness, but of language itself. This impactful memoir is for professionals in education, social services, healthcare, and rehabilitation. It is an inspiration for all.
